AGREEMENT

An agreement made this nineteenth (19th) day of the month of July, One thousand nine hundred and eighty three BETWEEN the President of India (hereinafter referred to as "the Government") of the ONE PART, AND, the Tribal Large Size Multi Purpose Co-operative Society Limited, Daman having its registered office at Moti Daman, Daman and represented by its Acting Managing Director Shri G. B. Bhandari (hereinafter called the "Society" which expression shall where the context so admits be deemed to include its administrators, legal representatives and permitted assigns) of the SECOND PART.

WHEREAS the main objects for which the Society is formed is to improve the socio-economic conditions of the economically weaker tribal communities in the areas of Daman District, Union territory of Goa, Daman and Diu;

AND WHEREAS the said Society has applied to the Government that the land specified in the Schedule annexed hereto (hereinafter referred to as the "said land") should be acquired by the Government under the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (hereinafter referred to as the "said Act"), for the public purpose namely: Construction of medium size godown for Tribal Large Size Multi Purpose Co-operative Society at Moti Daman, Daman;

AND WHEREAS upon the application of the said Society, the Government have agreed to acquire on behalf of the Society under the provisions of the said Act, the land specified in the Schedule annexed hereto and situated at Moti-Daman, District of Daman, having been shown to the satisfaction of the Government that the proposed acquisition is needed for the construction of a work likely to be proved useful to the public, namely, for construction of medium size godown for Tribal Large Size Multipurpose Co-operative Society at Moti Daman, Daman.

AND WHEREAS the Government have called upon the said Society under the provisions of Section 41 of the said Act to enter into Agreement with the Government hereinafter contained.

NOW, THESE PRESENTS witness and it is hereby agreed that the Government shall put into force the provisions of the said Act in order to acquire the land for the said Society on the following terms and conditions, namely:—

1. The Society shall pay to the Government the entire cost as determined by the Government for the acquisition of the said land, including all compensations, damages, costs, charges and other expenses whatsoever which have been or may be paid, or incurred in respect of or on account of such acquisition or in connection with any litigation arising out of such acquisition either in the Original or appellate Courts and including the costs on accounts of any establishments and salary of any officer or officers of the Government whom the Government may think is necessary to employ or depute on special duty, for the purpose of such acquisition and also including the percentage charges on the total amount of compensation awarded in accordance with the instructions issued by the Government from time to time. The money which shall be payable by the Society under this clause shall be paid by the Society by making initial deposits with the Office of the Collector of Daman District free of interest in the sum of Rs. 3,000/- (Rupees three thousand only) within fifteen days from the date of execution of this Agreement and thereafter by payment in the said office of Collector of Daman district within fifteen days after demand made by the Collector of Daman District in writing, such further amount as may be required for the purpose of paying or disbursing compensation, damages, costs, charges or expenses herein before referred to. In case of urgency, when the possession of any land is proposed to be taken under Section 17 of the said Act before an Award has been made under Section 11 of the said Act, the Society shall deposit with the office of the Collector of Daman District free of interest such amount being not more than two thirds of the approximate amount of compensation payable in respect of the land as determined under clause (ii) of sub-rule (2) of rule 4 of the Land Acquisition (Companies) Rules, 1963 and within such time as the Collector of Daman District thinks fit, to specify in this behalf.

2. If the Society fails to pay to the Government the entire cost of acquisition, as referred to above, within the above said period, the Government shall be entitled to recover the same from the Society as arrears of land revenue as if it were moneys due to the Government under the laws for the time being in force.

3. On payment of the entire cost of the acquisition of the said land as hereinafter referred to, the whole of the said land shall, as soon as it may be convenient, be transferred to the Society subject to the provisions of the law for the time being in force, as to the terms and conditions on which the land shall be needed by the Society. The Govt. shall not be bound to give possession of the land until all the money have been paid and may withdraw from the acquisition, and in case of withdrawal, the Society shall be liable to indemnify the Government against all expenses incurred and damages sustained as a result of anything done by them in the matter of acquisition till the date of withdrawal.

4. The said land, when so transferred to the Society, shall be held by the Society as its property to be used only in furtherance of and for the purpose for which it is acquired, subject to the payment of the assessments and cesses of the said land which may from time to time be liable to such assessments and cesses under the provisions of any Laws for the time being in force.

(i) The Society shall not except with the previous sanction of the Government, use the said land for any purpose other than that for which it is acquired;

(ii) If the Government is satisfied after such inquiry as it may deem necessary that the Society was prevented by reasons beyond its control from construction of godown of the Society within the Government may extend the time for that purpose by a period not exceeding one year at a time, so however, that the total period of extension shall not exceed three years;

(iii) The Society shall at all times maintain and keep the said land and godown erected thereon, in good order and condition to the satisfaction of the Collector, Daman District;

(iv) The Society shall maintain all records of the Society properly and supply to the Government punctually on demand such returns of educational, statistical and other information as may from time to time be required by the Government;

(v) The Society shall not use the land or godown that may be erected upon it for any other purpose which in the opinion of the Government is objectionable.

5. The Society shall at all times permit the Government or any officer or officers authorised by the Government in that behalf, to inspect the said land and any works of the Society on or upon the said land whether in the course of construction or otherwise.

6. The Society shall not in any way alienate, the said land or any portion thereof except with the previous permission in writing of the Government.

7. If the Society commits a breach of any of the terms and conditions stipulated in this Agreement, the Government may take an order declaring the transfer of the land to the Society as null and void,—whereupon the land acquired shall revert back to the Government and an amount not exceeding one fourth of the amount paid by the Society to the Government as the cost of acquisition under clause (i) of the Section 41 of the said Act, shall be forfeited to the Government as damages and balance will be refunded to the Society and the order as made shall be final and binding.

8. If the Society utilises only a portion of the land for the purpose for which it was acquired and the Government is satisfied that the Society can continue to utilise the portion of the land used by it even if the unutilised part thereof is reverted back to the Government, the Government may make an order declaring the transfer of the land with respect to the unutilised portion thereof as null and void, whereupon such unutilised portion shall be liable to be resumed and taken back by the Government and an amount not exceeding one fourth of such portion of the amount paid by the Society, as cost of the acquisition under clause (i) of Section 41 of the Act, as in relatable to the unutilised portion shall be forfeited to the Government as damages and the balance of that portion shall be refunded to the Society and the order so made shall be final and binding.

9. In case there is any dispute with regard to the amount relatable to the unutilised portion of the land, such dispute shall be referred to the Court, within whose jurisdiction the land or any part thereof is situated and the decision of that Court thereon shall be final and binding on the parties to this Agreement. PROVIDED that the Government shall not make an order as aforesaid, unless the Society has been given an opportunity of being heard by notice of the breach complained of, and the Society has failed to make good the breach or to comply with any directions issued by the Government in this behalf, within the time specified in the said notice for compliance therewith.

10. If at any time or times any part of the said land is required by the Government for the purpose of making any new public road or for any purpose connected with public health, safety, utility or necessity, the Society on being thereon required by the Government in writing, shall transfer to the Government such part of the said land as the Government shall specify to be necessary for any of the aforesaid purposes, and in consideration of such transfer the Government shall pay to the Society a sum equal to the amount of the compensation awarded under the said Act, and paid by the Society in respect of the land so transferred including the percentage awarded under Section 23(2) of the said Act together with such amount as shall be estimated by the Executive Engineer, Public Works Department, Government of Goa, Daman and Diu having jurisdiction, whose decision in the matter shall be final and binding as to the costs of the development of the land so transferred which shall include the value at the date of transfer of any structure standing thereon and when part of a building is on the land so transferred and part is on the adjoining land, reasonable compensation for the injuries affected to the part of the building on the adjoining land.

11. The Society shall construct the godown on the land within one year from the date of taking over the possession of the land.

12. All the costs and expenses of and incidental to the preparation and execution of these presents including stamp duty shall be borne by the Society.
